

Robin Howard

Robin is a gifted musician and speaker with a passion for Jesus. Her heart's desire is for the Bride of Christ, His Church, to become revived and renewed.

Robin Howard's life was transformed by Jesus Christ in 1976 when she surrendered to His Lordship. She came into a renewal of that relationship with Him in 1997 which fuels her life and ministry today.

Armed with a quick wit and burning desire for God's children to enjoy deeper levels of intimacy with Him, Robin has you laughing one moment and on your knees the next as she reveals the Father's heart for His own. She presses listeners to deal with impediments to renewal in their own lives and thereby experience the fruit of a no-holds barred surrender to Him.

Robin uses music, including a unique gift of playing the piano, to incite God's people to worship and praise the Lord. As a "child prodigy," she was guest soloist with several symphony orchestras, including the Chicago Symphony, and also appeared on Ted Mack's Amateur Hour.

Before beginning her own ministry, Robin teamed with Sharon Hoffman full-time for 24 years. Known as Sharon and Robin, they shared nationally in numerous retreats, churches and conferences.

In addition to speaking and leading worship celebrations at retreats and churches, Robin also presents "Let Praise Arise" weekend seminars geared to enhance and strengthen church music ministries.
